Iowa Public Sector Collective Bargaining Conference

A one-day conference designed to bring together Iowa public sector union leaders and bargaining team members to take stock of trends and learn from experiences during the past few years of dramatic changes under Iowa’s new collective bargaining law.

The conference will include brief presentations, case studies, and facilitated discussion and information sharing.

Join us to compare notes, exchange ideas, discuss best practices, and strengthen networks related to:

- Legal update: review of Chapter 20 and other laws relevant to public employees
- Bargaining over permissive subjects
- Policy and handbook options and outcomes
- Beyond the bargaining table: involving members and community allies
- Understanding public sector budgets
- Communications for member involvement in the new legal landscape
